

Announcement by Judiciary on Black Rainstorm Warning arrangements

The Judiciary has announced that because of the issuing of the Black Rainstorm Warning Signal, all hearings of the courts/tribunals will be adjourned this morning (June 28).

Hearings will remain adjourned this afternoon if the Black Rainstorm Warning Signal is still in force at or after 11am.

Court/tribunal registries and offices will also be closed and re-opened as soon as practicable within two hours after the Black Rainstorm Warning is cancelled.

Ends/Monday, June 28, 2021
Issued at HKT 8:31
