

CJ to visit Guangzhou and Shenzhen

Chief Justice Andrew Cheung, Chief Justice of the Court of Final Appeal, will lead a Judiciary delegation to visit Guangzhou and Shenzhen for two days tomorrow (November 7). The delegation will participate in roundtable discussions and visit various organisations. They will also engage in professional and technical exchanges with judges and relevant officers to discuss major judicial and legal developments concerning Guangdong Province and Hong Kong, as well as the application of AI in the Mainland courts. This visit is part of the ongoing exchanges between the Judiciary and the Mainland courts.

Other members of the delegation include Madam Justice Carlye Chu, Vice-President of the Court of Appeal of the High Court; Madam Justice Yvonne Cheng, Judge of the Court of First Instance of the High Court; Master Hui Ka-ho, Master of the High Court; and the Judiciary Administrator, Ms Esther Leung.

During Chief Justice Cheung's absence from Hong Kong, Mr Justice Roberto Ribeiro, Permanent Judge of the Court of Final Appeal, will be the Acting Chief Justice of the Court of Final Appeal.
